

In the traditional village of Parthenonas you can visit:

- The church of St. Stefanos, which was built in 1837.
- The Folk Museum, which was founded in 1995 where there is a collection of traditional tools and equipment. It's home is the old stonebuilt school of the village.
- The refinery, where wine and tsipouro (a traditional greek drink) are produced.

